

Female dentists in Europe

Profiles

This edition marks the start of a new series of reports: We want to introduce female European dentists who “stand their ground” as they balance their work, their family and their pro-bono activities.

Name: Dr Nathalie Khasin
 Profession: Dentist, implantologist
 Office: Berlin, Germany
 Age: 41
 Family: Married, 3 children
 Active: Member of the BDIZ EDI board

Dr Nathalie Khasin was born and raised in Munich. At the tender age of ten, during her weekly orthodontic visit, she decided to become a dentist because she found the work with the models and resin materials so exciting to look at. And as she grew up, she would do just that. Dr Khasin studied dentistry in Halle and Berlin and received her doctoral degree in Berlin in 2002, where she met her husband Leo Khasin, who is a dentist by training and today a well-known film director and winner of the German Film Award (“Lola”), the country’s most prestigious film industry award. He comes from a family of dentists who emigrated to Germany from Russia in 1981.

Nathalie quickly became interested in dental surgery and completed a two-year Curriculum Implantology, which she today says was an important experience for her – not least because she very much enjoyed the exchange with colleagues in a period when she would divide her time between her family and her practice.

“There was never any break, the two of them had to function hand in hand”, she recalls. Nathalie is raising three children and managing her Berlin practice together with three employed dentists and the support of her husband and parents. In her free time she follows the call of the mountains – skiing in winter, hiking and travelling. “In winter I want to get out of the city and into the mountains!” AWU ■
